Taking Note of Our Blessings this Thanksgiving

Although it is not a Jewish holiday, Thanksgiving could be considered the most Jewish holiday of all. Its theme of expressing gratitude for the blessings in our lives is at the very heart of what it means to be Jewish.

When the prophet Leah bore her fourth child, she knew that she had been blessed beyond her share. In Torah, children are often named for the circumstances of their birth, and so Leah named her son Yehudah, exclaiming, "This time, I will give thanks to God!" Yehudah, from the root ה.ד.ה, means, "thanks." The tribe of Judah descended from this child, and it is from this that we draw the name, "Judaism." Judaism, quite literally, means gratitude.

This year, as with everything in the time of COVID, Thanksgiving will likely look different than it has in years past. For many of us, the tradition of gathering with family and friends will not happen as we continue to stay apart so as not to spread the virus. As with Passover, and all of the holidays that have come since, the gatherings that we so look forward to will happen on screens instead of in our homes. It just is not the same. As these months tick by and the infection rate continues to climb, our losses -- the lost time, lost experiences, lost opportunities, and lost connections -- can make our gratitude around Thanksgiving feel forced.

In Midrash Rabbah, Rav Netrunoi Gaon teaches that there was a terrible plague during the reign of King David. One hundred people per day were dying. Realizing that the plague had a spiritual cause, King David and the sages instituted a "measure for measure" response: each person would say 100 blessings per day. Once this was implemented, the plague ceased.

Taking note of our blessings may not stop the COVID pandemic, but it can mitigate the plague that has taken root in our hearts. Looking for the blessings, especially when they feel sparse, helps us to change our perspective, to change our outlook, and as such, to change our reality. It shifts our focus away from the things we lack and leads us to appreciate the abundance of good in our lives.

This year, we are grateful for you -- the 706 families that make up this amazing community. We are grateful for the technology that allows us to stay connected, and for every one of you that continues to engage with us as we grapple through this new reality. We are grateful for this opportunity to reach beyond our walls to people who would never otherwise have found their way to us. We are grateful to our leadership, whose steadfast commitment to Ohef Sholom has allowed us to thrive as a spiritual home for 176 years and counting. And we are grateful for this rich, beautiful tradition of gratitude that we call Judaism that is our stronghold no matter what life brings.

Please join us on Wednesday, November 25 at 7:00 pm for our 93rd Annual Thanksgiving Service with Freemason Street Baptist Church. We will be virtual this year, and you can view the service on Facebook Live, on our website, or on Vimeo. The service will remain online so you can choose to view it anytime afterward, even on Thanksgiving Day - yet another thing for which to give thanks.

Wishing our entire OST family a Thanksgiving full of blessings,

Rabbi Roz Cantor Jen

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS

Todah Rabah!

While every day is always the right time to show appreciation, saying “thank you” is never more appropriate than near our cherished national holiday of Thanksgiving.

In a year when nearly everything feels different and upside down – including our annual Thanksgiving service with our friends at Freemason Street Baptist Church – expressing gratitude is especially important.

And so, I’d like to use this space to say thank you to our Ohef Sholom Temple Family.

Thank you Ohef Sholom Temple Officers, Executive Committee members and Board of Directors for all of the time you’ve invested in OST this year – for getting myriad jobs done and for attending so many meetings.

Thank you Past Presidents and Honorary Board members for your time and willingness to continue to serve and in some cases, even chair committees! Your advice is always appreciated.

Thank you Rabbi Roz and Cantor Jen for your inspiring, comforting, intelligent and creative services, pastoral care, and education.

Thank you Linda Peck and our dedicated Staff for making certain OST continues to function and stay safe – physically and financially – during these uncertain times.

Thank you Chuck Woodward and our magnificent OST Choir for offering beautiful music for our services.

Thank you Kitty Wolf and the entire Religious School Committee, Faculty, and Staff for figuring out how to virtually conduct classes and services – and to do so with enormous success!

Thank you Religious School Families for enrolling and supporting your children with a Jewish education.

Thank you Committee Members who willingly give of your time and talents to make sure that every aspect of Ohef Sholom Temple functions as it is intended to – from our finances to our security, from our Soup Kitchen to our worship, from our heating and air to our education, from our governance to our celebrations... and everything in between!

Thank you Shabbat Candle Lighters for bringing Ohef Sholom into your homes during our Friday night services.

Thank you Volunteers for assembling and delivering our High Holiday gifts, for participating in our meal trains, for planting our gardens, for tending to our library and archives.

Thank you Donors who give more than your fair share to our 176-year-old congregation to ensure our financial wellbeing, which enables us to do everything we do.

Thank you every single Congregant for being part of our wonderful, amazing, caring Ohef Sholom Temple Family!

Thank you! Todah Rabah!

Bring Home Some Ohef Sholom Sanctuary!

This year's High Holidays looked different for many of us -- unable to join together in the sanctuary with the glow of candlelights, the crisp air of a fresh new fall, and the warm embrace of our families and community.

As a lover of stained glass who has picked up the craft, I set about making a replica of our Temple's windows as a way to bring the sacredness of that space into a home, into a family Shabbat. In return, I'd like the piece to generate funds for those that still seek sanctuary - that still need our community and our country to share in the dignity of housing and refuge.

The pictured Ohef Sholom Stained Glass Shabbat Candle Set is available for raffle, and all proceeds will benefit the Caring Committee, which supports the newly created Love Thy Neighbor initiative as well as our Soup Kitchen and other tikkun olam (repairing the world) programs. $10 = 1 ticket!

Tickets can be purchased online at ohefsholom.org through November 20.

Thank you for your generosity. Through it, may we bring some sanctuary into a home and open sanctuary to those not currently within its warmth and safety.

With love,

Erica Fink

SISTERHOOD

Sisterhood! This word is full of meaning and I would like to share a reading from our WRJ (Women of Reform Judaism) book, Covenant of the Soul:

THE WOMEN OF SISTERHOOD

We are women who have bonded together in the spirit of friendship, love and a common cause.

We are women who for whatever reason, be it that we were born Jewish or we became Jews by choice, have chosen to lead a Jewish life.

We are women who know that together we can accomplish more than we could do alone.

We are women who are filled with dedication, devotion, determination and hope.

We are women who are daughters, sisters, mothers and grandmothers, the products of our ancestor's teachings – they who were the dreamers, the planners, the believers.

We are women who know that we can make a difference by our actions.

We are women who are the protectors of the past, the caregivers of the present and the promise of the future.

We are Jewish women, Sisterhood women.

We are the women of Reform Judaism. The future in great part lies in our hands.

Gail W. Bachman
Sisterhood President

Our Sisterhood Board continues monthly meetings exploring ways to support each other and our Temple. We anticipate working in conjunction with the Caring Committee and the Temple for some holiday projects. Be on the lookout for more information in the As the Temple Turns and special emails with more specific programs.

We welcome your thoughts and ideas so please contact me, through email, text or phone.

Yours in Sisterhood,

Our mission, as stated on the website:
"OST Sisterhood is a community of welcoming women from all walks of life who meet for spiritual, educational, and social growth through Judaism. Our diverse members are all ages and come from varying backgrounds, allowing us to join together to serve the needs of our congregation and community, while cultivating life-long friendships."

MEN'S CLUB

Iwould like to start this month's article by talking about Men's Club projects. At our last Zoom meeting, I shared some ideas with those in attendance. Besides the project we are currently working on with OSTY, we decided to get a speaker to discuss financial planning or investing during times of uncertainty. We agreed this might be a very topical discussion.

Look for more information in the Temple's e-newsletter As the Temple Turns or in other emails and please plan to join us at this Zoom event. If you are not receiving this weekly email, please sign up through our website at ohefsholom.org or contact the Temple office at 757-625-4295.

We are always looking for ways to keep connected, so please join us at our next Zoom Meeting to share camaraderie and ideas.

NEXT MEETING:

ECOJUDAISM

The Missing Tree

Once there was a big oak tree.
Workers mistakenly cut it down.

They hauled away all its parts.

Ground the stump into a mound.

Now the tree is missed by the squirrels, who found shelter in its limbs.

They ate and buried the acorns, their instinct kicking in.

Birds can no longer perch above, singing out their calls.

No new generations of birds,
born in the tree.

No pleasant shade in summer
as relief for you and me.

The ferns leathery leaves became brown from the sun.

No gentle breeze can rustle
the leaves as it moves along.

Roots no longer absorb the water,
more flooding to endure.

The carbon that the tree took in,
we breath in every day.

The loss of that one old tree affects us in many ways.

The question for us to decide,

Is what do we do today?

Our mission is "Tikkun olam."

Let us work toward it every day.

Currently we are working on Thursday mornings, weather permitting. Let us know if you are interested in helping. If you are available at other times, let me know. There is a great deal to do.

TESHUVAH STORIES

SERIES (1 OF 3)

JOURNEYS TO JUDAISM: Blair Belkin

Call me Nili.

Some years ago, more than half a century, the journey to become Nili began in the most unlikely of places.

One of my earliest childhood memories is sitting at the dinner table, when I was about 5 years old. During most meals, my father did most of the talking, discussing his day at work or what he had just heard Walter Cronkite reporting on the evening news. I was expected to sit quietly, so I was frequently bored by the adult conversation. On this particular evening, my mind was wandering when suddenly my ears perked up at something my father said. He stated that we, the United States, must never forget that God told Abraham, "I will bless those who bless you and curse him that curses you." Dad loved the God of Israel and taught me that the Jews were God's chosen people. He supported Israel because it was the Jewish homeland, promised to the Jews by God. That conversation around the dinner table made an impression on me and influenced the rest of my life.

I was nine when I was in the library and right in front of me was a book that I truly believe was placed there by God. The book about 5 sisters quickly became my newest friend. I read and re-read this book. Later, I read it to my daughters and again to my granddaughters. All of a Kind Family by Sidney Taylor introduced me to Jewish Holidays and gave me a new curiosity regarding the history and customs of the Jews.

As a teenager, I questioned why we, as Baptists, did not observe the laws of the Torah. I was told that the laws were no longer applicable, that the New Testament replaced the Old, that the church now had a covenant with God that did not require adherence to the laws. I would then argue that Baptists held the 10 Commandments up as a guideline of behavior, so why ignore the other laws? The church services typically focused on the Gospels, but I preferred to read the history and prophets, the texts that I believed to be of more significance.

As a young adult I concluded that I should follow the Biblical dietary guidelines. We were very southern, and all vegetables were cooked with fatback or bacon grease. When I started following the dietary laws, the response of my two Nanas demonstrated the special love that grandmothers have for their grandchildren. Both of my Grandmothers began to set aside portions of food before the addition of pork to accommodate my beliefs. They never complained or challenged my commitment to avoiding pork and shellfish.

Call me Nili.

I chose this name for several reasons, one of which is to honor my Nanas.

In his book: To Life! A Celebration of Jewish Being and Thinking, Rabbi Harold Kushner discusses how Jewish mystics have spoken about "Jewish souls being born into gentile's bodies."

This is an abridged version of Blair's original speech. To read her full Teshuvah Story, please go online to ohefsholom.org/teshuvah-stories/.

I believe I am one of these souls.

The Torah tells us that God changed the names of Avram and Sarai. At the time they become Abraham and Sarah their destiny was about to change. New possibilities were about to begin. Jacob also has a name change. After he has survived wrestling with God in the form of an angel, Jacob is renamed Israel. At the heart of Judaism is the notion of wrestling and struggling with God.

I too have wrestled with God.

Making the decision to follow God's command to convert was not done lightly. New environments, traditions, calendar changes and trying to fit in created anxiety. I am still trying to find my niche. Leaving my comfort zone, the things known, the supportive network that has been built, has taken me many years.

In Shoftim, the people of Israel are about to enter the

EDUCATION

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL ARTICLE

Our Religious school is off to a good start virtually. The teachers and staff have done a great job with both the mechanics and the curriculum, offering innovative and highly interactive classes.

The curriculum we are using for Kindergarten through sixth grades has been created especially for these challenging times. La-bri'ut, To our Health And Wellness is a values-based curriculum where learners gain a variety of tools that build resiliency and supportive strategies for better managing the challenges that life can throw their way, such as the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Seventh, Eighth and Ninth grades are participating in a series of mini courses including Sacred Choices, the URJ Personal Relationships Course for middle school students, American Jewish Super Heroes, Judaism and the World's Religions, and The Holocaust.

Each weekly session of Religious School begins with an engaging T'filah with Rabbi Roz and Cantor Jen.

Our littlest learners are having a great time in weekly Pre-K for 3 and 4 year olds and Wiggles & Giggles on the first Sunday of each month for families with infants through age four.

Hebrew classes are offered for students in grades 3 through 6.

To register your child in Hebrew and Religious School go to:

<https://ohefsholom.org/religious-school/>

Does your child have special needs? In order to provide a meaningful and appropriate religious education for all Jewish children, OST has a Virginia State certified special education teacher on our staff to work with children with special needs to create an environment in which all children can learn.

For more information on these programs, please contact Kitty Wolf at kitty@ohefsholom.org or 757-625-4295.

A CLOSER LOOK

HOW ABOUT SOME GOOD NEWS?

If you've had enough bad news for 2020, I'm excited to share some good news.

Ohef Sholom was one of two organizations in Virginia awarded a Nonprofit Security Grant from Homeland Security for FY2020. We owe a huge thank you to Joe Bouchard who shepherded us through this process, which resulted in a grant award of $98,760! The funds will be used to enhance the security of our lobby, front office, Religious School, Sanctuary and Kaufman Hall.

By the way, the only other grant in Virginia was Freemason Baptist, which also works with Joe Bouchard. We are so lucky to have his support.

This is our second Homeland Security Grant. In 2018, again with Joe Bouchard's help, we were awarded $107,679, which helped us purchase state-of-the-art surveillance cameras, expand our emergency announcement system, upgrade our 25-year-old security panel, enhance our access control, and purchase a new side door to the Sanctuary among a few other security improvements.

Nice to have something exciting to report!

► promised land. They are standing on the edge, looking into the new land, preparing to enter the land long ago promised to them by God. The excitement, the fear, the anxiety, the concerns they must have felt as they prepare for the next step in their adventure are similar to what I felt making a commitment to convert. I wandered a decade longer than the Israelites, but I finally recognized the limitations of the old and the possibilities of the new.

Several times in Shoftim, God promises protection during the journey. One example of this is Chapter 20, verse 1 which states: "When you see horses and chariots - forces larger than yours - have no fear of them, God is with you."

This promise of protection is repeated in our HafTorah portion. Isaiah 52:12 reads, "The Lord is marching before you. The God of Israel is your rear guard." I had to place my trust in God to lead the way and accept his protection. Allow God, to lead the way, he will protect and empower you.

Call me Nili.

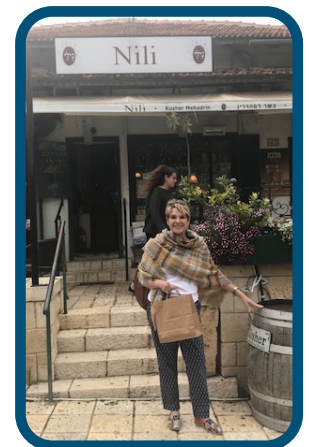

Nili is an acronym for "Netzah Yisrael Lo Yeshaker," and translates as "the Eternal One of Israel will not lie" (from I Samuel 15:29). It shows the faithfulness of God to his people. God made a promise to a community that I have wanted to be a part of since age 9. He does not lie. He made a covenant to Abraham and to the people of Israel before they entered the promised land.

Last year I asked Rabbi Roz if my conversion could be scheduled to coincide with the Torah portion Lech Lecha which contained the verse that I remembered so distinctly from that dinner table conversation. "I will bless those who bless you and curse him who curses you."

Long ago, when sitting at the dinner table with my family, I heard my Dad say those words that God spoke to Abraham, the words which stayed with me for many years and gave me a desire to be Jewish. Those words must have been God, calling another child of Abraham and Sarah to the home of their soul.

Please call me Nili, the name that best reflects my inner self.

THE POST BULLETIN BOARD

NEST 2020 (NORFOLK EMERGENCY SHELTER TEAM)

As you can imagine, NEST will be very different this year!

While the City of Norfolk is housing most people experiencing homelessness in area hotels during the COVID-19 pandemic, NEST sites may be needed to host up to 20 overflow guests. OST has agreed to serve as an overflow site, which means this year's dates will be determined as we are needed. We will be sure to observe all CDC and Virginia Department of Health guidelines while performing this important mitzvah.

For more information, please email nest@ohefsholom.org, keep an eye out in upcoming mailings of As the Temple Turns, or stay tuned to our website at ohefsholom.org.
