Teshuvah Stories:

JOURNEYS TO JUDAISM

Join us for a three-part series on different members' stories of their Journey to Judaism.

| | | |
|-------------------|-----------|---------------|
| August 23, 2013 | 6:30 p.m. | Joanne Batson |
| August 30, 2013 | 6:30 p.m. | David Adelman |
| September 6, 2013 | 6:30 p.m. | Paula Russel |

As we know, there are many ways to express our faith and live our Jewish lives. On three Shabbatot, you will have the opportunity to hear three different expressions of individual and family commitments.

Joanne Batson will speak about her decision to create a Jewish home and lead a Jewish life, while not formally choosing to become a Jew; David Adelman, born a Jew, will speak about his life-long commitment to Judaism, and Paula Russel will speak about her spiritual search, which culminated in conversion.

Taking the Inward Journey with Rabbi Steinberg

Selichot
August 31, 2013 beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Sponsored by the Adult Education Committee

This hour-long study session will help us awaken to the important realities or truths in our lives. Some of the questions we'll address are:

- From whom do we need to ask forgiveness?
- How have our words or actions hurt others over the past year?
- What were some of the unintended consequences of our behavior?
- How might we seek God's presence in the process of Teshuvah – repentance?
- Can we find forgiveness for ourselves and others?

Following the study session is a lovely dessert reception at 7:30. We will conclude the evening with an inspiring Selichot service at 8:00 p.m., featuring the music of Chuck Woodward and our exceptional choir. Also at the service we will change our Torah covers to the traditional white ones of the High Holy Days.
