THE TEMPLE POST

CLERGY CORNER

WITH RABBI & CANTOR

Welcome Back!

Dear OST Family,

In so many ways, the last year and an almost-half has felt like wandering in the desert. Life as we knew it changed overnight, and we had to find new ways to meet just about every need in our lives as individuals and as a community. We just woke up one day and nothing was the same.

And so, we did what Jews do. We adapted. We tapped into our creativity, our resources, and our strength and remade our lives, taking each challenge as it came. We pushed through our trepidation and our grief and we made it work.

Now, just as we are becoming adept at living a virtual life, another change; this time a positive one. A miracle vaccine, ready years ahead of what we thought possible. Cleansing sunshine. A society that, for the most part, has done the collective work to drive down the COVID numbers that uprooted our lives, leading experts to relax mask and distancing mandates that have come to be our way of life. We are elated that we can see the light at the end of the tunnel. And yet, we know that this means yet another upheaval in our lives. More change, more unknowns, more challenges to overcome -- we are thrilled to be able to see the way to a new normal, but we are exhausted!

Parashat Sh'lach, which we read on the first Shabbat in June, tells the story of the Israelites at a similar moment. Having shaken the yoke of slavery in Egypt and experienced the miraculous parting of the Sea of Reeds, they find themselves on the brink of the Promised Land where God promises them a life of peace and prosperity. Moses directs twelve leaders -- one from each tribe -- to scout out this land and report back what they find. When they return, ten of the scouts report that while the land does indeed flow with milk and honey, its inhabitants are giant and its cities strongly fortified. They insist that the way forward is too dangerous.

The two remaining scouts tell a different story. Joshua and Caleb report that while they know there will be challenges, the land is exceedingly good. After all, God told them that God would ensure their peace and safety there. They viewed the way forward through the lens of faith, and when they did, they saw the potential for an abundant life.

God was angered and disappointed by the majority opinion from the scouts and the Israelites who gave in to that fear. After Moses begged for mercy, God relented. However, it was clear to God that this generation was not yet ready to enter the Promised Land, as their fear was stronger than their faith. They would wander for 40 more years, until that generation died out, before the Israelites would find their peace.

This is our challenge as we move forward. While we cannot discount the trauma of what we have just experienced, we learn from this story that we must choose to enter this new chapter in our lives with faith. If we take the steps that experts in the fields of science and medicine tell us we must, our lives, too, can flow with goodness -- not milk and honey, perhaps, but hugs from our grandchildren, meals together with friends, seeing each other's smiles, and gathering in prayer.

On June 4th, Ohef Sholom Temple will once again open its doors for Friday night Shabbat services. A team of dedicated congregants -- our own scouts -- have spent countless hours pouring over the data and recommendations to determine the safest way to do this, and their report is glowing. There is a path forward. We can overcome the logistical challenges and safely gather. And so we will.

For those who are ready to join us in person, you can find details of our reopening in this issue of the Temple pOST. We ask for your patience as we figure all of this out together. If you are not yet ready to join us in person, our services will always be on our Facebook page and the OST website, and we will continue to offer many opportunities to connect with us virtually -- this, too, will be a part of our new normal.

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS

John Cooper
President
president@ohefsholom.org

Greetings from our New Temple President

Greetings from your new Temple President. I am excited to serve this great Reform congregation at this interesting time. I hope you are all doing as well as possible, and perhaps even thriving, as we come out of the pandemic.

twenty B'nai Mitzvahs in the coming year which will keep us busy.

I hope to continue the philanthropic stewardship which Matthew and Karen Fine have spear-headed in recent years. We will move ahead applying our Jewish values to the important issues of the day, including environmentalism and social justice. One of my other goals for Ohef Sholom Temple is adjusting the governance of the synagogue seeking to be both transparent and effective. I ask you to join me and the new Board of Directors in helping Ohef Sholom Temple shine as a beacon of Jewish values and living for another 178 years and more.

My inspiration to serve as President of Ohef Sholom is my aunt, Minette Cooper. She became the Temple's first female President of the Board of Directors in 1985. Aunt Minette is capable, confident, and committed, and still very active in Temple life and leadership.

Deep gratitude is due to Terri Budman and the whole Board of Directors as well as the clergy and staff for bringing us to the next chapter in the life of the synagogue. Terri did an amazing job through tough circumstances. Her kindness and steadiness has been a source of strength for us all. Rabbi Roz, Cantor Jen, and Chuck Woodward have worked minor miracles over the past year to bring us beautiful music and meaningful worship on new platforms.

I look forward to continuing to work with all of you as we move forward together in our congregation's 178th year. I welcome suggestions from all of you about how to make our sacred relationships stronger and how Temple can better serve you. The two immediate tasks are reopening safely and finding a new executive director. As I write, both of these projects are well underway.

There is much cause for optimism about the future of Ohef Sholom Temple. Our religious school and adult education offerings have remained strong even through Covid. Special thanks go to Tammi Foer, Alyson Morrissey, Kitty Wolf, and Barb Gelb among many others for performing this key work innovatively during this difficult time. We have over

Sincerely,

John M. Cooper

▶ We, your clergy, have missed you dearly during this time. We are so grateful to each one of you for sticking with us and for never losing sight of the value in this remarkable Ohef Sholom community. Special thanks goes to our immediate past president, Terri Budman, for her exceptional leadership and tireless work to achieve this goal of reopening. Mostly, our hearts are full knowing that with faith and optimism we can finally say – THIS YEAR AT OST!

MAZEL TOV!

Congratulations to Ella Goodove on her upcoming Bat Mitzvah on June 5!

Ella is the daughter of Amy & Scott Goodove, the sister of Drew, and the granddaughter of Sandy & Bill Sroka and Harriet & Eddie Goodove.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mazel Tov to Rabbi Rosalin Mandelberg on receiving her Honorary Doctorate on May 27 from Hebrew Union College - Jewish Institute of Religion for 25 years in the rabbinate!

Mazel Tov to Dr. Julie Forman-Kay, Senior Scientist and Program Head, Molecular Medicine, on being named a Fellow of the highly prestigious Royal Society. The Royal Society's fundamental purpose is to recognize, promote, and support excellence in science and to encourage the development and use of science for the benefit of humanity. Scientists of the Royal Society continue to make outstanding contributions to science and Julie certainly exemplifies this.

Julie is an international pioneer in her field and the foremost Canadian expert in developing and applying tools to study the dynamic structure, interactions and functions of disordered proteins of significant biomedical relevance. Disordered proteins are those that don't have stable structures, and Julie's work overturned the common view that protein function always relies on stable structure, providing a new understanding of the biophysics of disordered protein interactions that regulate essential cellular processes. Her ongoing work in the Forman-Kay Lab continues to break new ground and I am delighted to share today's news.

Mazel Tov to ALL of our graduating Seniors! Even though this was a crazy year to be a grad, we applaud you for successfully making it through a tough year!

CONDOLENCES

Ohel Sholom offers heartfelt condolences to the following members & friends:

Todd Aftel (Lindsey) and Ross Aftel on the loss of their father, Jay Aftel.

Kenneth Bates (Mara) on the loss of his father, and McKenna, Kaden, and Makayda Bates on the loss of their grandfather, Arthur Bates.

WELCOME BACK: Shabbat Services Return to the Sanctuary

Friday, June 4, 2021 at 6:30 pm

Since March 2020, Ohel Sholom's leadership has worked diligently to make decisions, first on our closing, and now, on our reopening, based on CDC guidelines, Governor Northam's Executive Orders, and with the Jewish value of Pikuach Nefesh, the preservation of life, as our highest priority. Our Executive Committee, Crisis Management Team, COVID-19 Policy Committee, and now, our Reopening Committee have been measured and careful in creating protocols to keep our clergy, staff, and congregants safe. Now, we feel we're ready.

Starting Friday, June 4, evening Shabbat Services will be in the sanctuary. Our services will also continue to be streamed on our website and Facebook page.

We can't wait to welcome you back!

The process to attend will be simple, but still a process, which will certainly evolve.

To attend in-person Friday Night Shabbat Services at Ohel Sholom Temple:

- Reservations are required.
- Reservations are limited (currently 85 people per service).
- Reservations will open each Monday at Noon for that week's Friday night Shabbat. A sign-up link will be sent on Mondays and close when all the slots are filled.
- Vaccinations are strongly recommended and preferred.
- COVID questions will be asked via email and then confirmed in-person at Temple.
- Masks are required.
- Ushers will assist with seating.
- Seating will be in designated rows.
- Physical distance between groups will be four seats.
- Congregants will be dismissed by rows at the conclusion of Services.
- Food and beverages are not permitted, so no Onegs at this time.

We're doing our best to be safe, responsive, and inclusive as we inch back to in-person events at Temple. We look forward to praying together in-person.

TZEDAKAH CORNER

Happy Summer from OST Engagement & the Caring/Outreach Group

The weather has warmed, we are all “breathing easier” and soon we'll begin a “new normal” for resuming Temple community activities! Our dedicated Caring Committee sub-groups are continuing and restarting their efforts to ensure our congregants and our community feel the love and support of Ohef Sholom not just via zoom and phone, but “live and in person”!

As on-site services resume, we seek (vaccinated) volunteers to help us keep attendees safe and healthy, adhering to necessary guidelines while enjoying the joy and peace that only being in the sanctuary together can bring.

Our incredibly dedicated Soup Kitchen contingent has continued providing meals to our homeless neighbors throughout the pandemic and will continue to do so on the last Monday of every month all summer long. Teens, young adults and anyone with a few hours to spare on those Monday mornings who wish to join us will be welcomed and introduced to a true act of Tikkun Olam.

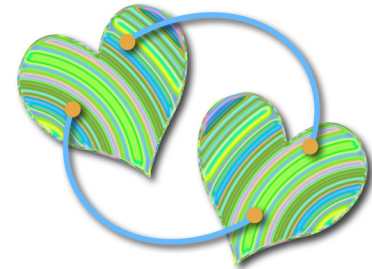

The quilting group has returned to the building; watch for meeting times in ATTT each Wednesday.

Our “Outreach Group” has developed into a well-organized core of comforting callers, card senders, and meal train coordinators. Some of you may have already benefitted from their caring actions; if you are in need of a friendly voice or would like to be one who provides connection to others on an occasional basis, please don't hesitate to call the Temple office and let us know. We are still just a phone call away!

Our “Love Thy Neighbor” outreach fulfilled the mitzvah of beginning family to family connections with ForKids and will be working together over the summer months to assist with “back to school” provisions for our special and deserving group of families. If you are interested in joining the group of families pitching in together, please contact Carol Brum at carolnanroth@gmail.com or via text at (818) 614-2527.

The High Holidays will be upon us before we know it! Let's all move toward them with a goal of refreshing our efforts in doing good and contributing to the many mitzvot we can take part in.

I'm so thankful for this community and its ability to thrive during this past dark year. I look forward to being with many of you in our positive efforts to resume our spiritual connections and communal good deeds!

LIFE & LEGACY

LIFE & LEGACY: Our Past & Present

OUR PAST

Generation after generation, our heritage has been carefully and lovingly preserved at Ohef Sholom Temple by those who came before us. The fruit of their labors has provided us a treasured community that functions as a place of worship, a gathering space, a cultural learning venue, a center for community outreach, and a historical site all in one. This house – our house – is the legacy planted by preceding generations and it is up to us to continue that legacy, ensuring that Ohef Sholom Temple is, and always will be, “A House of Prayer For All Peoples,” including our children, our grandchildren, and all generations to come.

The Ohef Sholom Foundation was created in 1990 to help us secure our long-term future. Its principal mission is to raise funds to grow our endowment, and additionally, to manage these funds in a prudent and fiscally responsible manner, meeting the needs of the donors as well as the needs of the Foundation. The funds endowed to OSF provide for needs above and beyond general operating needs in times of prosperity and especially in times of challenge. Relationships are at the core of this task. Cultivating and nurturing strong relationships with our congregants is vital to this endeavor. It is important to educate our members about the mission and the means needed to carry it out. That is why it is vitally necessary to listen to our members when they tell us what is important to them and what are the values by which they live.

Since its creation, the OSF has been successful in building a strong foundation for OST. As a result of The Eternal Light Society created in 2011, and most recently the 4-Year LIFE & LEGACY Campaign from 2017-21 sponsored by the Harold Grinspoon Foundation and in partnership with the Tidewater Jewish Foundation, Ohef Sholom was able to grow our endowment significantly. The LIFE & LEGACY Campaign on its own added 81 new legacy commitments totaling an estimated $3.5 million in current and future gifts.

OUR PRESENT

While the LIFE & LEGACY Campaign is officially ended, growing our endowment is a never ending priority. It is our obligation and privilege to make sure Ohef Sholom Temple will be a thriving community for our children, grandchildren and the generations to come. We remain steadfast in our commitment to fostering a culture of philanthropy, one conversation at a time.

Our LIFE & LEGACY team is working diligently to ensure that the philanthropic culture at OST is one based on strong relationships honoring the partnership between donor and organization. We have worked closely with the Tidewater Jewish Foundation to create a Sustainability and Stewardship Plan that will serve as a guide for sustaining our legacy initiative into perpetuity.

Today our Foundation has $6.5 million in investments in nearly eighty specifically named or designated funds. In addition, the Foundation expects to receive over $9 million in promised gifts in the future. In the fiscal year just ended, the Foundation contributed to the Temple's budget $248,766 in restricted and unrestricted gifts which helped to enhance the Temple's operations in order to keep the Temple relevant to current as well as future generations.

THE POST BULLETIN BOARD

Our TREX recycling program is continuing to make an impact on our community!

After obtaining two TREX benches for OST, we have now given a bench to the Gosnold Apartments of Virginia Supportive Housing and to our friends across the street at Ghent United Methodist Church. For our fifth collection, Campbell Fox will be taking charge of collecting the plastic as part of his Eagle Scout project. Campbell's plan is to have the bench placed along the Elizabeth River.

TREX Coordinator Christina Verderosa would like to remind everyone to please make sure they only put eligible items in the collection. All TREX material must be clean and dry. Please shake or rinse all food residue out of bags. Make sure not to include plastic bottles, clamshells, candy wrappers or similar items. Thank you for your continued support!
