PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS

THANK YOU!

John Cooper
President

Thank you! Those two words are key to relationships and stewardship. A stewardship work group headed by Alyssa Muhlendorf recently completed a wide-ranging study of how Ohef Sholom can improve in the way we show gratitude to our contributors, volunteers, and members. More gratitude fosters more participation. Our Temple family is blessed to have so many members and friends who love and support our synagogue. The investments of time, talent, and treasure made every day are amazing. OST leadership hopes to continue to build on our strengths as a congregation that "gets it" on stewardship. I believe the benefits to all of our community in appreciating each other more are immeasurable. Please keep attending, helping, and giving to uplift the Ohef Sholom Temple family as we need you and appreciate you. Thanks for reading this item and your efforts to improve the world.

SISTERHOOD BOOK CLUB

Wednesday, February 8

6:00 Salad Bar Supper followed by discussion of the book

Please join us for the Sisterhood Book Club, led by Debi Stadlin, where we will be discussing The Forest of Vanishing Stars, by Kristin Harmel.

This New York Times bestselling author returns with an evocative coming-of-age World War II story about a young woman who uses her knowledge of the wilderness to help Jewish refugees escape the Nazis.

After being stolen from her wealthy German parents and raised in the unforgiving wilderness of eastern Europe, a young woman finds herself alone in 1941 after her kidnapper dies. Her solitary existence is interrupted, however, when she happens upon a group of Jews fleeing the Nazi terror. Stunned to learn what's happening in the outside world, she vows to teach the group all she can about surviving in the forest—and in turn, they teach her some surprising lessons about opening her heart after years of isolation. When she is betrayed and escapes into a German-occupied village, her past and present come together in a shocking collision that could change everything.

Inspired by incredible true stories of survival against staggering odds, The Forest of Vanishing Stars is a heart-wrenching and suspenseful novel.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

While the weather has cooled off, the fun happenings at OST Religious School have not! During the months of November and December we held 6 sessions, one of them being a virtual session due to the Norfolk Harbor Half Marathon. During these sessions, our students were engaged in various activities that promote Jewish learning and culture. Whether our students were baking rainbow challah with Mr. Chris, making music with Ms. Marilyn or the Zentzes, demonstrating their creativity during art with Ms. Tammi & Ezra, or even actively learning Hebrew with Hunter, our students are building a community of Jewish learners and we couldn't be more thrilled!

Another important aspect we are instilling in our students is the importance of living our Jewish values. We have taught this by showing the value of helping those in need and expressing kindness. The Religious School partnered with the Mitzvah Day committee, led by Ellen Hundley and Ellen Coley, to make 20 Thanksgiving baskets for Jewish Family Service. Each class was assigned items and really made magic happen through the power of collaboration and generosity. Also with the Mitzvah Day committee, our students painted rocks for our new Rock Garden which is housed in our building's atrium. Go check it out! Lastly, in an effort to spread joy this holiday season, students in grades K-2nd, led by Morah Mara, have recorded Chanukah songs to be played for the residents at Beth Sholom Village. This is sure to bring a smile to many resident's faces. The month of December ended with our Chanukah family program where everyone got in the festive spirit participating in Chanukah games, crafts, and eating lots and lots of latkes!

As you can see we are very busy on Sunday mornings, but our learning doesn't just happen then. While students attend Hebrew classes prior to Religious School on Sundays, many students also participate in Zoom sessions during the week. These Zoom sessions have proven to be quite effective and we are seeing great progress with our students. We are so fortunate to have such dedicated teachers who ensure the needs of all our students are being met.

The Religious School has a lot more fun planned in the upcoming months, including an off-site event for Tu B'shvat. Be sure to keep reading the weekly newsletter for all the latest information regarding the Religious School.

SHABBAT THROUGH OUR SENSES

JANUARY 13, 5:00 PM

Our youngest learners, ages 0-4, are invited for dinner followed by a service in the Chapel with sense engaging activities!

Mark your calendars for future Tot Shabbat services on April 21 and July 14

OSTY & JOSTY

OSTY and JOSTY had a great time at our annual Chanukah Party! We are so excited to be able to gather and celebrate in person again. For our party, we enjoyed a latke bar with creative toppings, such as guacamole and hummus, along with the traditional apple sauce and sour cream. We had pizza and sufganiyot, too. We played a game that resulted in opening our Chanukah gift together: a photo printer for the OSTY lounge. We're excited to tack photos up of all the fun activities happening. Finally, we created our own chanukiot out of candy and really showed our creativity. We used materials such as wafers, gummy bears, Hershey bars and Kit Kats.

In November, we gathered for Friendsgiving, one of our favorite events of the year. Everyone brought sides to share, with some of the most popular being macaroni and cheese. We talked about the meaning of Thanksgiving and the gratefulness aspect. Then we wrote our own prayer, based on one from the prayerbook. For both of these activities, we were excited to have our ShinShinim, Alma and Aya, join us.

MITZVAH DAY

The Mitzvah Day Co-Chairs completed two very successful projects during the months of October and November.

Religious School students were asked to bring in nonperishable food that would later be donated to the Thanksgiving Drive sponsored by JFS. We reached our goal by providing 20 bags with all the items on their wish list. We delivered them to JFS for them to distribute to those in need.

The second project we coordinated with the Religious School students allowed them to design and paint their own rocks which were later placed in the Atrium-with future classes having the same opportunity. All the kids were engaged and seemed to really enjoy the activity. Next time you are at Temple please check out the beautiful artwork that now serves as a border for the beds in the Atrium.

We are looking forward to coordinating our efforts with CHKD. They are excited to be receiving fleece blankets that the Temple has been collecting. They will provide warmth and comfort to some of the children who are in the hospital. Thank you to everyone who donated!

Another project we look forward to will be in collaboration with Sisterhood and the Caring Committee. Our plans are to take single bud vases and place a hand-crafted, artificial flower in each. These will be delivered to congregants who are recovering from surgery or illness. Please keep your eyes out for the date when we will be making the flowers. Your creativity and assistance are welcomed.

Finally, sometime in the Spring, we will combine efforts with the Worship Committee to help clean up the Jewish Cemetery located in Suffolk. We promise to advertise the date that we plan on doing this and sincerely hope that you will join us in this Mitzvah!

BECO LICHTMAN WEEKEND IN RESIDENCY

Presented by OST's Adult Ed Committee

"Moving from Bias to Inclusion: Thoughts from a Black, Gay Jew"

BECO LICHTMAN

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION STRATEGIST & FACILITATOR

Imagine: it's Friday night, and he's rushing to Shabbat service. He's in town for business and excited to visit this popular synagogue for the first time. Nervous smiles, quizzical frowns, awkwardly welcome him. "Can I help you?"—a brave soul asks while looking him up and down. "Yes, thank you. I'm here for Shabbat services." After saying this, he now sees the man's face trying to compute this information – "Wait, you're Jewish? You don't look Jewish." The new visitor responds, "Yes, I'm Black, gay and Jewish." With a smile and a wink in his eyes, he whispers, "But please don't tell anyone."

The above is both Beco's story and a universal one. Black, gay Jews may be like unicorns for some. People have heard they exist, but no one has met one before. But this story isn't really about being Black, gay or Jewish, is it? It's about loving and welcoming the stranger regardless of race, gender identity, sexual orientation, abilities, or religion. Are there perhaps many types of unicorns amongst us wanting to be seen and included?

Learn more about Beco Lichtman

Let's face it, we all have biases. We sometimes distance those who appear to be different from ourselves and place them into limiting categories without recognizing their full value. How do we – as individuals and as Jewish organizations – move away from our biases toward full inclusion? It's time to "pray with our feet" as Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel described his experience of marching from Selma to Montgomery. Now is the time for action.

In this candid, hopeful and humor-filled talk, Beco offers lessons and strategies to cultivate more inclusive spaces, where everyone is seen and valued. He is committed to expanding conventional narratives dealing with identity. Beco invites audiences to engage in a more compassionate approach to better understand and overcome our own biases.

3 CHANCES TO SEE BECO LICHTMAN!

Friday, January 20 6:30 pm

Shabbat Services and Oneg

Answering Dr. King's Question: Where do we go from here: Chaos or Community?

This critical question will be explored throughout the weekend along with the message of inclusion.

Saturday, January 21 10:30 am

Shabbat Services and Kiddush Luncheon

Critical Race Theory: Divisive Discourse or Essential Education?

The Sanhedrin-style debate will focus on whether critical race theory (CRT) serves our society as necessary education, or further divide communities. Increasingly, there is more legislation banning certain books and curricula that are designed to promote diversity and inclusion. Noteworthy: The bans are not limited to issues pertaining to the BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, People of Color) communities. In several instances, state legislatures and school board committees have also banned Holocaust education. They are calling on the need to include a more balanced perspective and they insist that an opposing view on Holocaust education be taught at the same time.

This highly-interactive activity will help (1) reveal some of our biases, (2) understand what CRT is, and (3) discover ways we can learn to embrace inclusion more effectively and fairly within our community. Please bring your ideas and an open heart. Everyone will have an opportunity to participate.

Beco Lichtman and his husband, Eric Lichtman, will co-facilitate this hour-long group activity.

Sunday, January 22 10:00 am

Carpool Cafe:

Bridging the Black/Jewish Divide: Finding common ground in the fight against antisemitism and racism

In his latest talk, Lichtman draws upon a variety of perspectives, including historical facts and science to invite his audience to engage in a compassionate approach to their own biases so that all together we can understand and challenge the patterns of antisemitism and racism.

TO RAKE OR NOT TO RAKE

If you dread the fall ritual of raking up your leaves and cleaning up your yard and garden, there's good news. Not only is it not necessary to clear off leaves and cut down standing dead plant material, it is better in most cases both for your yard and the environment to leave all of that in place.

The need to clean all that untidy material up in our yards has been ingrained in us over the generations, but when we do this we are raking, mowing and blowing away winter habitat for moths, butterflies, snails, spiders, and dozens of arthropods. Many of these critters winter over in the leaf litter. Others lay their eggs in the trees and then the larva drop to the ground after they hatch. Leaving the leaves provides a "soft landing" for these beneficial insects.

Leaving a thick layer of leaves on your lawn is not a good idea. However, research has shown that lawns actually benefit from a thin layer of leaves. Use the rest as you would mulch around ornamental trees, shrubs and perennials.

Many gardeners go through all the work of gathering up all the leaves, bagging them and putting them out on the curb, only to head to the garden center and buy bags of mulch. By leaving the leaves, you are providing organic matter to build up healthy soil. Fallen leaves are just as effective at weed suppression and moisture reduction as shredded wood mulch, and you don't have to pay for them or do all the work of spreading them.

The next time you wake up on a late fall morning to the sound of leaf blowers all over your neighborhood, you can just roll over and try to go back to sleep.

GRATITUDE SPOTLIGHT

Thank you to everyone who has offered to volunteer in the Temple office. We are all always grateful to have congregants' help. In addition to the much needed assistance, spending time in the office allows us to get to know each other better – and that is another part of what makes Ohel Sholom Temple's Family so great! Thank you!

Thank you to Harry Graber and Sally Gudas for all of their efforts with our Immigration Task Force. Harry and Sally have been working quietly behind the scenes on ways to assist our local immigrant population to access essential services. The projects they have laid the groundwork for will continue. Watch our Facebook page for upcoming opportunities to help.

The OST staff extends our deepest gratitude to past president Steve Kayer for serving as our Executive Director for the past two years. We have greatly enjoyed our time working with Steve and we are so grateful for his leadership and the positivity that he brought to the office.
